	Learned counsel for the respondents submits that it was not a transfer order of only one person but it is a case of transfer of about 95 persons and the transfer has been made due to the administrative exigency. It is settled principle of law that the courts should not interfere with the order of transfer in normal course except where the allegation of malafide is established. In the present case there is no allegation of any malafide. In view of the foregoing, the petition is dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs. Sd/- Satish K. Agnihotri Judge
